

APPLICATIONS FOR LIFE TRANSFORMATION

1. As you are under God's authority, who does God want you to make time for? Are you giving wise counsel and being a good example? Is there someone that you need to reach out to for help and mentoring?
2. Are you making time for relationships with other believers? Are these relationships open and honest... are you being held accountable/are you holding someone else accountable?
3. Is there someone at your work, school or church that you are feeling called to build a relationship with? What is holding you back from making "the ask"?
